Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth." After the sermon the Bishop confirmed thirty persons-twentythree females and seven males.

At the Methodist church the Rev. Mr. Nash, of the North Carolina Conference, officiated in the morning. At night the pulpit wes occupied by the regular pastor. Six persons were united with the church, five being baptized.

Petit Jurors Drawn.-The following is list of petit jurors drawn for the April term of the Hustings Court: Samuel Lewis, Thomas E. King, F. M. Moxley, John Talley, J. T. Millington, John H. Matthews, E. N. Reams, H. R. Raines, W. A. Traylor, I. C. Wells, D. B. Lewis, Sr., Irvin Weislger. George Kemp, William Lipscomb, Samuel B. Nelson, Michael Steine, Josep's J. Perdue, James E. Horner, G. A. R. Mere lith, B. P. Owen, O. W. Savory, Joseph L Sampson, John H. Hughes, and Henry M Owen. Several of the above have recently removed from the city-some to Richmond North Carolina, and New York.

Beau Mondes .- The inclemency of the weather did not prevent the Beau-Monde Club from having their ball at the Green House last night.

Sunday-School Anniversary.- The first anniversary of the Christian Sunday-school took place at Lyceum Hall Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. Z. Tyler and Elders Charles McGruder and W. R. Rosne. The hall was crowded with visitors, including many from Richmond.

The report for the year was read, stating the average attendances, collections, &c., and was very encouraging. Elder E. B. Challenner, of Richmond, will commence a protracted meeting tonight. Chesterfield County .- One of the largest crowds that has ever assembled at the Chesterfield court house gathered there on yesterday. Some persons were there as interested spectators in the actions of the grand jury. Many merchants were also present. it being the court for the granting of licenses for the ensuing year. Others were also interested to know what action the county supervisors would take concerning the medification of the resolution recently passed by them governing an appropriation would appropriate the amount ($250) without requiring any provisions or restrictions in their resolution. . They unanimously agreed to furnish to the Bridge Commissioners the amount appropriated, leaving it in their judgment to use it for the best interest of the bridge. The case of William Pemberton, who was sent on from the Magistrates' Court at Manchester township, charged with an attempt at rape upon a young white girl, was given to the grand jury, who after lengthy deliberation found a true bili against Pem-betton for an attempt to main, disfigure,

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD-LIVER OIL AND LIME .- The advantage of this companied over the plain ful is that the nauscating taste of the Oll is eatirely removed, and the whole rendered entirely palatable. The offensive taste of the Oil has long acted as a great objection to its use; but in this form the troub'e is entirely obviated. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and success of "WILBOR'S COD-LIVER OIL AND LINE"; but the fact that it is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty is sufficient.
